

Biography

Kevin Sedivec

Research interests:

Range Nutrition
Noxious Weed Management
Grazing Systems
Rangeland Monitoring
Horse Forages

Training/Education:

Ph.D., Animal and Range Sciences, NDSU -1994
M.S., Animal and Range Sciences, NDSU -1989
B.S., Zoology, NDSU -1987

Courses taught:

RNG 456/656 Range Habitat Management (Guest lecturer)
RNG 458/658 Grazing Ecology (Guest lecturer)

Extension Responsibilities:

- Provide statewide leadership in range and natural resource management programs.
- Develop and disseminate educational material and programs for County Agents and Citizens of North Dakota.
- Provide workshops and training sessions in the field of range management and development of a 12-month forage management system.
- Provide leadership for educating our youth (4-H, FFA, and others) on the importance and uses of the range resource, conducting camps and statewide range judging activities.